

For My Father

G C
Sun is a rising
G C
shadows in hiding
G C D
clouds they flee the sky

G C
dew is a falling
G C redwings are calling
G C D
river is running high

G C
and I see your eyes
G C
warm as the sunshine
G C D
my heart it feels alright

water cascading
kites are all sailing
children take the long way home

birds on a wire
smells from the fire
the great oak stands all alone and I hear your voice calmly assuring

my heart it feels alright

aspens are flowing
gentle breeze blowing
wildflowers are everywhere

blue-green morning
red sky gives warning
to the mountains way up there and I feel your hand

reach out to hold me
my heart it feels alright

and I am so glad to call you my dad you're the best I've ever known

we've had some good times we've had some bad times but you will always be my own and wherever I go now you're there beside me

you know my heart feels alright
