

I've a Reason For Believing

G

I've a reason for believing

C

I don't need no deceiving

G D

I'm on my way home

this world is fine yeah

but it aint mine

G D G

I'm a heading down the road

D G

I've a date with glory

D G

to be with my Lord

D G

then it'll be a different story

A D

and all that I know

A D

is that tears will no longer flow

Am D on the day I walk into heaven the Son of Man will take me by the hand lead me to be with his own and all the tears I've cried will be set aside and I will never be alone oooooh can't you feel it what a glorious day that will be the world it will awaken and the darkness that surrounds us will flee from his glorious Light the good shepherd who found us will lead us to be with him eternally away from the pain of the night no more crying, there'll be no more dying you know its going to be alright oh come Lord Jesus

come take me home to be with you forever in a world that's lost its way people have gone astray still I will know

I've a reason for believing

and I don't need no deceiving

I'm on my way home

but it aint mine
